

ANSWERS

1. My daughter is very inquisitive. She is always asking questions.
2. The men were so angry with each other I thought they were going to come to blows (start fighting)
3. Wearing school uniform is compulsory in most schools in Hong Kong.
4. Hitler was the infamous German leader who led his country to almost total destruction.
5. A colleague is a person that works with you.
6. One of the merits of learning English is that it opens many doors for you.
7. Rigour means toughness or extreme difficulty.
8. If you are agnostic you neither believe nor disbelieve in the existence of God.
9. Some animals use regurgitation to feed their young. They will eat something and then vomit when their young are hungry.
10. John is very cynical. He never really believes that people can be nice.